

SUNY CIT 2018 Sneak Peek

CIT is SUNY's largest and most prominent event on instructional technology in education, providing a forum for faculty, instructional support professionals, and policymakers to present, discuss, and explore innovative avenues for integrating technology into the teaching and learning environment.

2018 Theme: Elevate Learning: Taking Education Higher

CIT 2018 will feature pedagogical innovations, student-centered experiences, flexible educational settings, application of trending technologies, and creative approaches to assessing evidence of learning.

Featured Speaker: Robin DeRosa

Robin DeRosa is a professor at Plymouth State University, part of the University System of New Hampshire, where she directs the Interdisciplinary Studies program. Robin is also an editor for Hybrid Pedagogy, an open-access, peer-reviewed journal that combines the strands of critical pedagogy and digital pedagogy to arrive at the best social and civil uses for technology and new media in education.

Robin was recently a guest for the Teaching In Higher Ed: Faculty Development for Professors To Facilitate Learning for Students podcast series in a session titled, "Considering Open Education with an Interdisciplinary Lens from Teaching In Higher Ed: Faculty Development for
