

The Sharon Gallagher Memorial Scholarship

Financial assistance is available for first time attendees to the SUNY Conference on Instruction and Technology (CIT). The Scholarship aims to encourage new faculty and staff involved in teaching, learning, and instructional technology initiatives to pursue opportunities for professional development and networking with colleagues across the SUNY System. CIT was established in 1992 to provide faculty and instructional support professionals with an opportunity for professional growth, to share experiences and expertise, discuss common problems, brainstorm solutions, and explore innovative avenues for improving the learning environment with technology.

The Sharon Gallagher Memorial Scholarship covers recipient's costs for:

- CIT Registration fees
- Conference meals
- Fees associated with on-campus housing

Qualifications:

Full-time SUNY Faculty/Staff attending the SUNY CIT Conference for the first time

How to Apply:

Please provide a letter (one to two pages) highlighting why attending the SUNY CIT conference will benefit your professional development.

Submit your letters to cpdinfo@suny.edu with the Subject Line: Sharon Gallagher Scholarship. Letters will be accepted through Friday, April 27, 2018.

The Sharon Gallagher Memorial Scholarship Committee will review letters and announce the recipient by May 4, 2018.
